ROUSING CHEER ENDS MEETING

Anniversary Commission and States' Representatives from North and South Unite in Cheering for Common Country.

With three rousing cheers for the "United States of America" the representatives of the North and South, the majority of them veterans of the Civil War, brought to a close this morning their final session before the fiftieth anniversary of the battle.

The morning was taken up with hearing reports from the various states on the number of veterans expected to attend. The total was placed at 45,685, of which Pennsylvania is expected to bring 15,000 and New York 10,000.

The utmost of good feeling was shown throughout the entire session and the representatives of the Northern States vied with those of the South in extending greetings and courtesies.

The tentative program arranged three and a half years ago still stands and was not enlarged upon at this meeting other than with regard to the first day when there will be two addresses of welcome, one by a representative of the Grand Army and the other by a representative of the United Confederate Veterans. Each body will welcome the other to their common battleground. Governor Tener will deliver the oration of the day and the session, which will open with prayer by the chaplain of the Grand Army, will close with the benediction by the chaplain of the United Confederate Veterans.

The representatives of the many states were delighted with the big veterans' camp after their return to town on Thursday afternoon and were reassured regarding the possibility of taking care of the thousands expected here for the week.

The camp is to have not only every street numbered, but every tent also, and each veteran will be able to tell the location of his tent as easily as he could tell his street address at home. The camp is to be divided into sections, each state having its veterans at one particular location and efforts will be made to have smaller organizations quartered together. At each state's headquarters will float not only the Stars and Stripes but the flag of that particular state.

A large detail of Regulars will be on duty at the camp to care for the comfort and convenience of the old soldiers. A number of non-commissioned officers will be assigned to each street and will be under a lieutenant who will see that they conduct the veterans to the places assigned for them and do everything possible to make their stay here pleasant.

Much of the time for discussion at the meeting Thursday was taken up with the problem of identification cards which are to prevent the entrance into the camp of "bogus" veterans. It was felt, after a thorough discussion, that the question had been carefully taken into consideration by every state and that few, if any, would attempt to secure accommodations to which they were not entitled.

Colonel J. M. Schoonmaker, chairman of the Pennsylvania Commission, touched on the transportation problem and the difficulty of handling the enormous crowds. He stated that the principal difficulty was going to be the getting rid of empty trains in order to make room for more incoming excursions and specials bearing veterans. This question is being given much thought by the Pennsylvania Commission who will do everything possible to get sufficient facilities to bring here promptly all who want to come.

The representative from Oregon stated that all the veterans from that state would come through in a special train to Gettysburg, taking it at the city nearest their home and not having to get out of the train until their arrival at the camp.

Colonel Schoonmaker read a letter at Thursday afternoon's meeting from the widow of Lieutenant Galway, 8th Ohio Volunteers, asking that her husband's body might be buried in the National Cemetery before the time of the celebration. Lieutenant Galway died two months ago and before his death he often expressed such a desire to be here for the celebration that his widow felt she would like to have his body brought here before that time. Colonel Schoonmaker told her this would be impossible but consented to read her letter to the commission and states' representatives, assuring her that it was altogether likely the body could be brought to Gettysburg at a later date.

BOARD OF HEALTH TO CLOSE WELLS

Many Gettysburg Wells Found Polluted and Local Board will not Allow Health of Community to be Endangered.

In view of the probability that many citizens will feel tempted to use their abandoned wells at the time of the anniversary celebration this summer steps were taken Thursday evening by the Board of Health to prevent any sickness from this cause and many wells in town will be condemned. This action follows analysis of water from numerous town wells which showed dangerous conditions to exist. The local board on Thursday evening determined upon the following:

That all wells in the water of which the colon bacillus is found, (including cisterns and springs) be declared a nuisance, prejudicial to the public health—and that the owners of the properties upon which they are located be ordered to remove the pumps therefrom and securely and permanently close the wells, cisterns or springs within ten days of receipt of properly signed notice from the Secretary of the Board of Health.

That all wells, cisterns or springs which have not been in use for a period of one year or more be declared a nuisance and prejudicial to public health, in that they are liable to be re-opened and used with the water in an unfit condition, and are ordered to be closed within ten days of receipt of notice so to do.

That such wells, springs or cisterns as are imperfectly protected against surface drainage or other surface pollution, be declared dangerous to the public health, and that the owners of such wells, springs or cisterns be directed to repair them in accordance with the instructions of the officers of the Board of Health, within a period of ten days—in default of compliance herewith, that the well be placarded as dangerous—and in the event of such placard being removed, defaced, covered or tampered with in any respect, that the well be securely closed against use.

LIBERTY HALL

Liberty Hall—The following spent Sunday with W. T. S. Sites and family, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Hull, Mr. and Mrs. Preston Hull, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. White and children, George and Joanna, Miss Effie Hull and Stewart and Rosanna Sites.

Mrs. Jacob Elker and children, Elva, Gilbert, George and Samuel, spent Sunday with Grant Herring and family.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Seabrook and daughters, Elizabeth and Margaret, visited at the home of Mr. Eyer, of near Emmitsburg, on Sunday.

Miss Mary Esther White has gone to York where she will spend several weeks visiting her aunt, Mrs. Barr. J. S. Elker and Elizabeth Elker visited Washington Herring and family on Sunday.

J. D. Dubel, our supervisor, has had a force of hands at work repairing the rough roads the past week.

Mrs. Allen Prior and daughters, Margaret and Frances, visited W. W. White and family on Sunday.

Miss Alice McNair and brother Benjamin visited at the home of W. C. Plank on Sunday.

ISAAC TROSTLE

Former Mail Carrier to Gettysburg Dies at York Springs.

Isaac Trostle, one of the best known residents of York Springs, died at his home in that place on Tuesday night from a complication of diseases. He had been in failing health for the past several years but it was only known a few weeks ago that the end was near.

Mr. Trostle was born at Round-bush's mill in Huntington township about 72 years ago. He followed the occupation of farming for many years and later moved to York Springs where he carried the mails between there and Gettysburg, York and Idaville.

He is survived by his wife and three daughters, Mrs. Minerva Trimmer, York Springs; Mrs. H. F. Smith, York; and Mrs. Reese Roberts, of Ambler.

The funeral services were held this Friday afternoon at the house at 1:30 o'clock and were conducted by Rev. Paul Gladfelder. Interment in Sunny-side cemetery.

WILL DEDICATE STATUE IN JUNE

Fine New Bronze Statue of General Sedgwick will be Dedicated June 19 instead of in July. Commission here.

The dedication of the fine new memorial to General Sedgwick at the foot of Little Round Top will occur with all due ceremony on Thursday, June 19. The original idea of having the dedication in July was abandoned by members of the commission who visited Gettysburg on Thursday.

Those in the party were General Charles H. Pine, Lieutenant D. C. Kilbourn, Lieutenant Charles F. Linsley and E. J. Steele. The latter is the vice president of the American Brass Company. Governor Baldwin is the chairman of the committee, but he was not with them.

Three years ago the State of Connecticut appropriated $25,000 for the statue. It is a heroic bronze equestrian statue and is mounted upon a handsome base of pure Connecticut marble. The sculptor is H. K. Bush-Brown, of Washington, D. C., who has designed statues of Generals Meade and Reynolds, and who was here with the commission.

General Sedgwick was killed on May 9, 1864, while in action. He was a graduate of the United States Military Academy.

BUCHANAN VALLEY

Buchanan Valley—Miss Clara Baker, a waitress at Mont Alto Sanitarium, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Strasbaugh spent some time in Chambersburg last week.

James C. Cole has his home furnished with water from a spring on the "Narrows Hill".

May devotions are conducted in St. Ignatius church on Tuesday and Friday evenings during May.

James Kimple and Miss Kate Kimple spent a day in Chambersburg last week shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. David Freet, of Fayetteville, with their children, George, Paul and Mary, spent Sunday at the home of John F. Cole.

George Shoemaker, of Scotland, visited his father, Joseph Shoemaker last Saturday.

Whitsuntide, May 11, was exceedingly cold and stormy, for May. On Saturday night tender vegetables that were not protected were frozen.

Quite a number of fires on the mountains have been observed from the valley for several days.

Miss Monica Howard has gone to her home in Bryn Mawr for an extended visit.

Mrs. John F. Cole and daughter, Miss Loretta, spent Monday in Chambersburg.

MANY APPLICANTS

Over Thirty Applicants for East Berlin Public Schools.

The East Berlin School Board has re-elected Prof. J. W. Bucher, teacher of the High School, and Miss Eleonora Emmert teacher of the Secondary. Teachers for the Primary and Grammar schools have not been elected as yet. The board has ruled to employ only normal or college graduates in the future. That there will be plenty of teachers for all the schools in the county this year can be judged from the fact that there were nearly three dozen applicants for the four schools at East Berlin.

MRS. REBECCA LIVINGSTON

Mrs. Livingston died at her home at Kraltown on Thursday.

Mrs. Rebecca Livingston died at six o'clock Thursday evening at her home at Kraltown aged 79 years. She was a former resident of this county.

Mrs. Livingston leaves a brother, John Howell, of New Cumberland, and a step sister, Mrs. Kate Garrettson, of Kraltown.

Funeral services on Sunday, meeting at the house at 9 a. m. Services at the church. Interment in York Springs cemetery.

REV. FRED GOELLER

Pastor of York Springs Methodist Charge for Several Years.

Rev. Fred Goeller, pastor of the York Springs Methodist charge during the years of 1909-10, died at Hackettstown, N. J., on Monday of Bright's disease from which he had been a sufferer for the past year. He was confined to his room for three weeks previous to his death.

The funeral services were held at Hackettstown, Friday. A wife and infant daughter survive.

NEWS FROM ALL PARTS OF COUNTY

Accidents and Many Other Items of Interest from Different Sections of Adams County. Will Preserve Old Church.

Harry Eckenrode, of near Heidlersburg, is lying at his home in a critical condition as the result of being kicked in the face by a mule on Friday morning. Mr. Eckenrode attempted to bridle the mule and it began running around through the stable. In trying to catch it Mr. Eckenrode received a terrible kick on the face just below the eye. He was carried to the house and remained in an unconscious state until Sunday when he first exhibited any signs of consciousness. At present time Mr. Eckenrode is unable to speak or move but hopes are entertained that he will recover.

On Tuesday afternoon a fire occurred on the premises of H. C. Brinton, in Berwick township. While Mr. Brinton, with a number of men, was engaged in removing straw from a stack to his barn, using a gasoline engine, in some manner, it is presumed, sparks communicated to the stack of straw, and soon after the wind was blowing strongly in an opposite direction, and with the aid of a bucket brigade, the flames were prevented from communicating to the barn. The engine however was ruined by the fire and the stack of straw consumed.

Samuel Diehl, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Diehl, of New Oxford, agent for the York Star Laundry, as well as for the Houck Hanover bread, one evening last week after returning home left his purse and money lying in the wagon shed while he put his horses in the stable. When he returned to the wagon he discovered that some thief had been there in the darkness and got away with the purse which contained a few cents over $25.

An effort is being made to raise $500 to apply as a perpetual fund for the maintenance of the Latimore Friends Meeting House a couple of miles below York Springs. The plan is to raise $500 to be placed with a trust company and the interest used to keep the ancient edifice in repair. The descendants of all the former members will be asked to contribute and it is hoped that the money can be raised before harvest.

Ira W. Brame, of Menallen township, is recovering from the effects of an accident he had one day recently. He had hired a neighbor's drill to sow oats and, after returning the drill, had the team unhitched with the exception of one trace, when the horses started. The drill tongue struck Mr. Brame and threw him to the ground, the drill passing over his body, breaking two ribs and cracking the third one on the left side.

Vincent Kaiser, a resident of near Irishtown, met with a peculiar mishap a few days ago. He is employed in the lime stone quarry of Steacy and Wilton, near Bittinger, and while at work, a good sized stone with a sharp edge struck him upon his right forearm cutting a deep gash that required eight stitches to close.

Cyrus Keefer, the adopted son of Grant Hankey at Table Rock, sustained a broken arm while playing with some boys on Thursday. He was engaged in a wrestling match when the left arm was broken between the wrist and elbow.

MARY D. ZIEGLER

Young Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Ziegler Died Thursday.

Mary Dean Ziegler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Ziegler, of York Street, died at their home on Thursday shortly after noon aged 8 years, 8 months and 7 days.

She leaves her parents, a brother, William, and a sister, Anna.

The funeral will be held on Saturday afternoon at three o'clock from the house. Interment in Evergreen Cemetery.

NEXT Saturday will be "Heinz Day" in our store. We desire you and your friends to come and enjoy the delicious samples that will be served. Peoples Cash Store.—advertisement 1

THAW ACCUSED

DR. RUSSELL

Swears He Demanded $25,000 to Free Him.

RECEIVED BACK $14,700

He Declares Others in Matteawan Asylum Secured Their Liberty by "Reimbursing" the Superintendent.

New York, May 16.—Harry W. Thaw told a jury in the criminal branch of the supreme court that he had paid John Nicholson Anhut, the young lawyer, $25,000 in securities and cash to obtain his release from the Matteawan Hospital for the Criminal Insane.

Anhut was to get only a small part of this money, $2500 or $5000, and the balance was to go to "reimburse" Dr. John Russell, then superintendent of the institution. Thaw has received back $14,700 of this money.

Thaw made a keener and more alert witness than he has ever made before, according to all who have seen him on the witness stand since he was acquitted of the murder of Stanford White on the ground of insanity. The questions of Arthur C. Palmer, counsel for Anhut, on "trial on a charge of bribery, did not succeed in rattling the witness.

Thaw testified that he was at Matteawan on Nov. 2, 1912. He had met Anhut on that date, first out in the hall and then in the counsel room, where they talked for several hours.

Dr. Russell had told him that a lawyer would come to see him who would act for him (Russell) and discuss the matter of release. Thaw had talked to Russell about this. Thaw then went into details of his talk with Anhut, who had told him, the witness testified, that Dr. Russell's terms were $25,000. Witness told Anhut that the amount surprised him, and he asked Anhut if that was the least Dr. Russell would take, and Anhut said it was.

"How much was Anhut to get out of this?"

"I do not remember exactly, but he said either $2500 or $5000."

"What proceedings were to be undertaken?"

"Mr. Anhut said, and Dr. Russell told me before, that it was only necessary for the superintendent to lead me to the door, pronounce me sane and let me go. I suggested that perhaps it might be better for the superintendent to do that through a certificate to the court, as the courts have always accepted such returns without question, but Mr. Anhut said that Dr. Russell did not believe this to be necessary. The court might refuse."

Mr. De Ford questioned a little further along this point, and Thaw discussed the question at length. He said a man of the name of Mathewson, who had killed his nephew and niece, had been released in this way; so had Preusser, the man who killed Miles M. O'Donnell, Richards and a few more. Mr. De Ford tried to stop him, but he elaborated on the two methods.

"My case is just like Preusser's," he wound up.

Anhut wanted the $25,000 before anything was done, Thaw swore.

"I asked him what would be done if nothing came of it, and Anhut replied the money would be returned.

"The stipulation was," he continued, "that unless I was free by Jan. 1, one-half the money was to be returned. If I were not released by July 1 the balance was to come back."

"What was said about raising the money?"

"I said to raise it all at once might cause suspicion. I said I might obtain some stocks to assure Dr. Russell of his payments and to make up the money in small payments. Anhut said Dr. Russell wanted all the money or its equivalent in his hands before he would release me. I said I had some Pennsylvania stocks, and he said that he had a friend who would buy them."

ELECT STONE MODERATOR

Seattle Pastor Chosen by Northern Presbyterian Assembly.

Atlanta, Ga., May 16.—Dr. John Timothy Stone, pastor of the Fourth Presbyterian church, of Chicago, was elected moderator of the Northern Presbyterian Assembly, to succeed Dr. Mark A. Matthews, of Seattle, Wash.

Possibility of an organic union of all branches of the Presbyterian church in America was voiced by the retiring moderator, Dr. Mark A. Matthews, at the opening session of the Northern Assembly. This was greeted with cheers by more than 800 commissioners.

"I am not in favor of mechanical organic union, but I am in favor of the organization of all the branches of Presbyterianism in this country if brought about as the result of conviction. The only thing that keeps us apart is the paralyzing influence of unbelief," said Dr. Matthews.

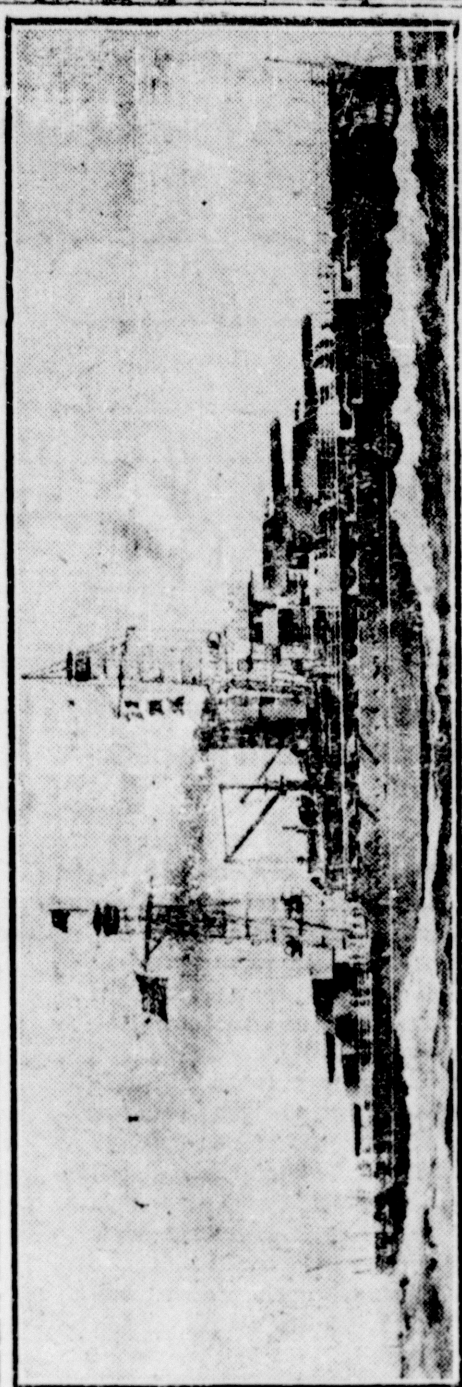

Advocates a Peace Triplice.
London, May 16.—Inspired by the recent utterances of Professor Hugo Munsterberg, warning the British and Americans not to make their peace centenary celebration a slap at the rest of the world, Lord Norton had a letter in the Morning Post advocating an alliance for world peace of Great Britain, the United States and Germany. The letter said that these three powers could insure universal peace.

BATTLESHIP PENNSYLVANIA PLANS HAVE BEEN STOLN.
Conservation struck the federal government at Washington when it was discovered that two sets of drawings of the proposed electrical installation of Pennsylvania had been stolen. Later similar drawings showing the deck plans and hatch arrangements were abstracted. The entire machinery of the United States secret service has been placed at the disposal of Secretary Daniels to solve the mystery.

PRESIDENT DRAFTS REPLY TO JAPANESE

The Note to Be Placed Before the Cabinet.

Washington, May 16.—President Wilson conferred with Secretary of State Bryan this morning to draft a reply to the note by Japan against the California alien land bill which Governor Johnson has announced he will sign.

The note will be submitted to the cabinet and then delivered to Viscount Chinda, the Japanese ambassador. The indications are that the attitude of the federal government toward the legislation itself, as well as the question of discrimination raised by Japan, will be fully defined.

Governor Johnson's decision to sign the bill was unofficially communicated to Viscount Chinda.

When the ambassador has received Secretary Bryan's formal communication he will communicate it to the foreign office at Tokyo and receive instructions for a rejoinder, so that probably a week will elapse before the negotiations can move another step.

Interest has been excited by Governor Johnson's quotation of that part of the California law which appears to limit his action, so far as it recognizes Japanese rights to the existing treaty of 1911, and there is some speculation as to whether that was intended to foreshadow a refusal on the part of the California authorities to be bound by the stipulation of any treaty that may hereafter be negotiated between the United States and Japan that would appear to be in conflict with the provisions of the new law.

The fact that Governor Johnson has not actually signed the bill is regarded as holding the door open to a last word from the administration if it should desire to communicate further with him before the final act of approval.

There is a belief in some quarters that the president may suggest to the Japanese ambassador that the administration is willing to submit the question to The Hague for arbitration.

TOKIO SEES SETTLEMENT

Japanese Foreign Office Optimistic About Permanent Solution.

Tokio, Japan, May 16.—The foreign office is optimistic as to the outcome of the controversy over the California alien legislation.

In reply to an inquiry, a high official said: "The negotiations between Japan and the United States are progressing satisfactorily. We expect to reach a friendly and permanent solution of the difficulty."

FRAMING MONEY REVISION BILL

President Expects It Finished Within Ten Days.

PROVISIONS OF THE MEASURE

It Will Carry Four General Sections, But No Guarantee by Government of Bank Deposits.

Washington, May 16.— President Wilson has sought expert, academic assistance for the drafting of an administration currency revision bill.

He has chosen a professor of political economy in one of the largest eastern universities, whose name is withheld, to be the actual author of the measure, and the work of drafting it is now going on.

The president expects the bill will have been finished and put in his hands within a week or ten days, for informal submission to the chairman of the currency committee of the house and the senate and the cabinet members who are being consulted.

The president acknowledged that a general agreement had been reached between himself and the congressional leaders as to the subject matter of the reforms to be attempted in this bill.

The fact that the president had asked for Mr. Bryan's views on the rough draft of the bill which was submitted by Mr. Glass last week has not been generally known. It has been authoritatively stated, however, that Mr. Bryan, whose platform in 1908 called for a government guarantee of bank deposits, has been asked to express himself on the needs of currency reform at this later date. The president himself, though, has removed the guarantee of deposits from the range of possibilities for the bill by declaring that it was something that had no part in a real currency revision measure.

From what has already been learned it is believed the decision has been reached to present to congress a bill which will carry four general provisions. They are:

- 1.—A regional reserve system instead of the central system condemned by the national platform.
- 2.—The gradual substitution of a currency secured by short time commercial paper of the highest grades for the present bond secured national bank notes.
- 3.—The adoption of the old Democratic pledge for the selection of government depositories on a basis of competitive bidding.
- 4.—A thorough revision of the administrative features of the national bank act, with the view of reconciling these portions of the law with the new conditions which will arrive from the operation of the law.

It is understood that some of the amendments covered by the last section will affect the concentration of the reserve. It is understood that the plan being considered by the president is to substitute for the present 2 per cent securities bearing interest at 3 per cent.

President Wilson, it is understood has submitted these rough plans to his chosen academician, with the instruction that they be formulated into a bill.

MINERS WIN WAGE DISPUTE

Umpire Decides Sliding Scale Controversy in Their Favor.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., May 16.—Charles P. Neill, former United States commissioner of labor, named as umpire to decide cases on which the miners' conciliation board was deadlocked, gave decisions in four cases, three of them victories for the men.

The most important gives the workers of the anthracite field the sliding scale of 7 per cent for the month of March, 1912, which means the distribution of over a half million dollars in surplus wages.

The miners claimed that they were entitled to the sliding scale in April on the March earnings. The operators contended that the men could not collect any sliding scale percentage because they were idle in April.

In deciding the case of the miners against the Scranton Coal company, which never paid any sliding scale, the umpire declares the new agreement awards the men of that colliery a flat 10 per cent advance instead of the 5 per cent which the company has been paying.

In the case of the engineers and patchers of the Jeannette mines, a Hazleton, the umpire decides that a change from locomotive to motor cars cannot reduce the wage scale, and he directs the company to pay the regular rates.

The Nottingham laborers of the Lehigh & Wilkes-Barre mine failed to make out a case and they are forced to suffer a slight cut in wages by the decree of the referee.

Train Kills Ball Player.

Pottsville, Pa., May 16.—Clarence Irving, twenty-one years old, pitcher of the Tigers base ball club, of Cresona, Pa., was run down and killed by the engine of a train of which he was one of the crew. He stepped out of the caboose and into the path of the engine, which struck him. His neck was broken.

HUMOROUS QUIPS.

The Weather Victims.

When all else is exhausted and Joy's bright banners flutter
A fellow blames his troubles on the weather of the world—
"Ever see the like of it? No matter where you turn
The hot sun roasts a fellow 'fore his time has come to burn!"

"We're all in Trouble's fetter, an' that's why we complain.
The country would be better if they let up on the rain."

Not only in sweet summer their anguish they unfold—
"Old winter'd be a hummer if the blizzard wasn't so cold!"

That's the way forever the grouchy fellows go.
"What a fine world it would be if heaven had made it so!"

And evermore their storm flags in the sunlight are unfurled—
It's fine to blame your troubles on the weather of the world.

—Frank L. Stanton in Atlanta Constitution.

Stumped.

There used to be an official of the government at Washington who, with others, was charged with the duty of examining applicants for appointment to places in the consular service, and with this official it was an obsession that no man should be accredited to the country the language of which he did not speak.

On one occasion there appeared before him a young westerner who was desirous of getting a consular place in Siam.

"You are aware, of course," said the official referred to, "that I never recommend the appointment of any one unless he speaks the language of the country to which he desires to go. Now, I suppose, you do not speak Siamese?"

"If," answered the westerner, with a smile, "you will kindly ask me a question in Siamese I shall be happy to answer it."—New York American.

A Modern Version.

Returning from an eastern trip one day recently, a local man was recounting his experience for the edification of other members of his household.

"While in Baltimore," he said, "I tried to find some of father's relations, but I was unable to locate them. Odd, too, because they have an uncommon name."

"What is the name?" inquired Robert, aged nine.

"Hark," replied the parent. "It's an old German name."

"Are they up to date people?" asked the boy.

"Up to date? Of course they are, so far as I know. Why do you ask that?"

"Oh," replied the youngster with a grin, "I thought they might have changed their names to Taxicab."—Youngstown Telegram.

Those who have not found it out by their own experience will be interested in knowing that, while a tent is a very hot place during the daytime when the sun is shining, it becomes a remarkably cool place just as soon as the sun is set. There is something in connection with the rapid radiation of the heat from a tent that brings this about. Besides this, a tent will be perfectly ventilated during the night without a direct wind blowing through it.

A Trying Role.

"Remember, Arthur, you are the son of a gentleman. Try to behave like one for just one day."

"All right, mother, but it will spoil the whole day for me."—Life.

OPPOSED TO LODGES FOR THEIR PASTORS

Lutherans May Keep Ministers From Secret Societies.

Philadelphia, May 16.—A lively contention over the question of permitting ministers to belong to oath-bound secret societies is anticipated at the 166th annual convention of the Evangelical Lutheran Ministerium of Pennsylvania and adjacent states, which opened in old St. John's church, Race street, below Sixth.

In his sermon at the ministerium's opening religious service the president of the body, Rev. Dr. E. T. Horn, of Mount Airy seminary, characterized as one of the dangers to the church the temptation which, he said, leads ministers to join associations with a special ritual and different obligations, which perhaps put Christ on a plane with Mohammed and made a separation in the congregation between those whom they called "brothers" and those they didn't.

An amendment to the constitution eliminating all restrictions against ministers joining secret societies was proposed at the last yearly meeting of the ministerium at Bethlehem, Pa. This is to be acted upon at the present session.

Another proposed amendment would substitute for the present restriction the following, which is much briefer: "No minister belonging to the ministerium shall be a member of any oath-bound secret organization or order."

Rev. Dr. J. A. W. Haas, president of Muhlenberg college, Allentown, was elected president of the ministerium. Rev. P. E. Pfeiffer, of Womelsdorf, was elected English secretary; Rev. H. D. E. Siebott, of St. Peter's German church, German secretary, and Rev. H. A. Weller, treasurer.

$1,000,000 FIRE IN BUFFALO

Large Elevator and 700,000 Bushels of Grain Destroyed.

Buffalo, N. Y., May 16.—Fire destroyed the large Erie elevator at Ohio and Louisiana streets, 700,000 bushels of grain, the elevator's capacity, the south end of the New York Central railroad freight sheds, a score of box cars and the fire house of the fireboat Potter. The loss will exceed $1,000,000.

The fire started in the tower of the grain elevator and, driven by a high wind, gained with remarkable rapidity. The entire fire department was called.

The flames jumped across the Buffalo creek, ignited the freight sheds and threatened the entire elevator section along the water front.

HITS AT REDFIELD IN WAGE CUT TALK

Mondell Precipitates a Clash in the House.

DRAWS UNDERWOOD'S IRE

Democratic Leader Defends Threat to Probe Cuts in Wages That Looked Like Tariff Reprisals.

Washington, May 16.—Secretary Redfield's broad intimation to business that the federal government would investigate cuts in wages that looked like reprisals for the passage of the tariff bills brought out a sharp crossfire of speeches between Representative Underwood, chairman of the ways and means committee, and Representative Mondell, Republican, of Wyoming, in the short session of the house.

Mondell declared Underwood's statement that wage cuts would be investigated could be "forgotten, because it was made in the heat of debate." Secretary Redfield had no such excuse, he said.

"Every right-minded citizen," continued Mr. Mondell, "hopes for the favorable conduct of the country's industries, but I know of no law which says any man shall continue to give employment to labor under adverse conditions and continue his business at a loss."

The Democrats, he declared, were revising the tariff with the people in a most favorable frame of mind, and it was ungracious to warn manufacturers that unless they continued to conduct their business at a possible loss they would be investigated "to satisfy the high and mighty secretary of commerce."

"The situation is just this," retorted Mr. Underwood, amid Democratic applause, "if you look through the tariff hearings you will find statement after statement of manufacturers that if a Democratic house reduced the tariff in the interests of the people they would take the reduction out of the labor in the factories and mills."

"Man after man said 'What reduction you make will come out of labor.' We intend that where these industries are making enormous profits, and many of them are, that reductions shall come out of the unreasonable profits, and they shall not continue to make those profits at the expense of their labor."

"A short time ago you Republicans contended for a tariff board to ascertain the facts, that industry and labor might be safeguarded in making tariff. Now that the machinery has started to ascertain the facts you run to cover, you show the white feather because you are afraid of a fair investigation."

"We won't interfere with labor, but when a manufacturer says he is cutting wages because of tariff reductions we want to know if he is telling the truth. If he is not, and he is simply punishing labor, then the facts should be made public. If he is telling the truth we want to know it. If we have made a mistake in any particular instance we are not afraid to acknowledge it and correct it."

"Will you promise," interrupted Mondell, "that if any industry shows a loss that will be repaired?"

"When the bureau of commerce finds," returned Underwood, "that injury has been done you may be sure this side of the house will stand ready to remedy the injury."

DRILL SAFE; GET $5300 BOUNTY

Masked Robbers Take Gems From New York Jeweller.

New York, May 16.—Five thousand dollars' worth of gems were stolen in one of the boldest robberies that ever took place in the jewelry district when two heavily armed and masked men ripped open the same of Sigmund Kohn, a diamond setter, of 41 Maiden Lane, which is just across the Fulton street "dead line."

Harry Bishop, an old watchman, surprised the pair while they were at work. He was no match for the two crackmen, however, who bound and gagged him, he said, and then continued their work. They used a motor drill to open the safe.

An hour and a half passed before Bishop could extricate himself and report the robbery to the police.

Evidently some disturbance caused the burglars to leave in a hurry, as half of the booty and many of their tools were found by the police in a vacant office on the floor above.

"He's a tall, red faced man, no overcoat, soft hat."

"A man answering that description got a bottle of whiskey here about ten minutes ago."

"How big a bottle?"

"Half a pint, ma'am."

"Some other man," said the woman.

PARENTS BLAMED FOR SOCIAL EVIL

Mrs. Schoff Says 300,000 Babies Are Sacrificed Yearly.

Boston, May 16.—"Three hundred thousand babies a year is the sacrifice laid on the altar of parental ignorance," said Mrs. Frederic Schoff, of Philadelphia, president of the National Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher Associations, in her opening address at the seventeenth annual meeting of the congress.

Proper education of mothers and fathers would save more than 60 per cent of this infant sacrifice, Mrs. Schoff estimated.

"At the root of the white slave traffic and the social evil," the speaker said, "is the absolute neglect of parents to educate their children in the laws governing life and the proper use of their God-given functions. The present condition is but the result one can properly expect from such neglect."

In referring to a need for change in the administration of justice in the cases of the wayward and erring children, Mrs. Schoff said:

"The sacrifice of infant lives is nothing in comparison to the sacrifice of children to a life of crime by mistaken methods of dealing with child offenders." She added that "inefficient homes are largely responsible for bringing children into the courts."

KILLED BY CROSSED WIRES

Telephone Call Fatal to One Man, and Another May Die.

Johnstown, Pa., May 16.—Paul Acken, a mine foreman, is dead, and Dr. C. B. Jones is dying in a hospital here as the result of an electric feed wire crossing a telephone line.

Acken went to the telephone to make a call and was instantly killed. Dr. Jones was called when Acken's body was found, and, unaware of the cause of death, went to the telephone to summon assistance.

The physician was knocked senseless, and, failing to regain consciousness, was taken to a hospital, where it is reported he cannot live.

Shot to Death by State.

It was the first legal shooting of a prisoner in Nevada.

Made a Difference.

"As I understand it, doctor, if I believe I'm well I'll be well. Is that the idea?"

"It is."

"Then if you believe you are paid I suppose you'll be paid."

"Not necessarily."

"But why shouldn't faith work as well in one case as in the other?"

"Why, you see, there is a considerable difference between having faith in Providence and having faith in you?"

The Policy of the Public Ledger

The PUBLIC LEDGER's single appeal for patronage will be on its merits as a complete newspaper with a news service better than ever before, and special, strong features to be found only in its columns. Ingenious schemes for forcing circulation will be tabooed. No money will be spent on what is not essential, to influence people to read it regularly; but money will be spent to make the PUBLIC LEDGER the best morning newspaper ever produced in Philadelphia.

To make it known to the public the PUBLIC LEDGER will take in large doses the medicine it prescribes for others—the only medicine that has stood the test of time and proved efficiency—advertising.

No premium or gift of any sort will be offered as an inducement to subscribe for the PUBLIC LEDGER; no cut rate will be offered, no clubbing plan or other seductive lure will be considered. The PUBLIC LEDGER must stand on its own merits as a newspaper. It has no patience with patent medicines, either for the individual or as a stimulant for newspaper circulation. They are as useless for the one as for the other. No subscriber will be sought who does not want the PUBLIC LEDGER for its intrinsic merit—for what he finds of interest in its pages. The reader who is "induced" to try it by some "gimcrack" gift or extraneous appeal is of no value either to the PUBLIC LEDGER or to the advertisers who employ its columns.—Editorial in Public Ledger, May 11, 1913.

Notify your newsdealer to deliver the Public Ledger to you regularly. By carrier, daily and Sunday, 17 cents a week. By mail, outside of Philadelphia, daily, 50 cents a month; daily and Sunday, 75 cents a month.

A Reply That Won Napoleon and the Duke of Modena.

In the French campaign in Italy, in which Napoleon I. first began to win the laurels which subsequently so abundantly crowned his career, a young Italian cavalry officer was taken prisoner.

Having serious doubts about his safety, it occurred to the prisoner to pretend he was a great personage. So he promised rewards to his captors if he would insure his good treatment, adding confidentially that he was the Duke of Modena.

He was exceedingly well cared for, and early next morning he was called before Napoleon, who was somewhat puzzled at finding two Dukes of Modena among his prisoners, for the real duke was also a prisoner. The real duke angrily asked his counterpart by what authority he had assumed the title of Duke of Modena. The young officer answered:

"Your grace, the perils of my situation yesterday was such that had I known a more illustrious title I would not have assumed yours."

The reply so pleased both the duke and Napoleon that he was forgiven his deceit.

Britanny's Hair Harvest.

It is at Easter time that the curious "hair harvest" of Britanny is "reaped" by the traveling merchants, who go from village to village buying the beautiful hair for which the Breton belles are famous. This is later destined to be made up into "transformations," "fringes" and other mysterious arrangements with which ladies less abundantly endowed by nature make up their shortcomings in the matter of "woman's crowning glory." The clients of the hair buyers are chiefly country lassies in the remote districts who are only too pleased to sell their tresses in order to obtain a little money to spend at the Easter fairs. The "harvest," however, is said not to be so good as formerly, as with the spread of education and the love of display many girls prefer to keep their hair—Wide World Magazine.

When the Waltz Was New.

I have a letter in my possession written by a friend to my great-grandmother in the year 1817, at Christmas time, in which the lady expresses her grave disapproval of the "modern" tendency toward rapid dancing. The paragraph runs as follows:

"It was yesterday at your Cousin Betty's, where I was much struck with the new fashioned dances, which seemed to me at any rate, to be out of keeping with the propriety and modesty which we look for in young ladies of our class. I can only regret the disappearance of those 'mazurkas' and 'gavottes' as well as the 'minuets' and 'loupés' as these new dances or 'valses,' as I think they are named, will quickly disappear from respectable society."

ANNIVERSARY

Rev. J. Chas. Gardner and wife Given Surprise at their Home.

(Contributed)

A most enjoyable wedding day surprise was given on Tuesday evening at the United Brethren parsonage on High Street in honor of the wedding anniversary of Rev. and Mrs. J. Chas. Gardner. A large number of members and friends of the church gathered at an early hour. The evening was one of high social character. Rev. J. R. Hutchinson, with well chosen remarks in behalf of the congregation and friends of the church, presented the pastor and wife with a solid mahogany rocker, leather back and seat. This was a great surprise, never to be forgotten. Oh! how these little things help over the hard places in life. The response of the pastor and wife were words of thanks and appreciation. A brief history of the years that led up to the evening was gone over. Many reminiscences of the years gone by were brought out by the speech makers to the amusement of all present. A high water mark in social affairs was reached. Cords lengthened and stakes set farther out for a greater service both to God and our fellow men.

Medical advertising FOR DELICATE CHILDREN

A Mother's Letter to Mothers.
Mrs. E. W. Cooper of Bloomfield, N. J., says: "My child, seven years old, had a bad cold and was weak and quite run down in health. She had been in this condition for about six weeks when I began giving her Vinol. It was a wonderful help to the child, breaking up her cold quickly and building up her strength beside. I have also found Vinol a most excellent tonic for keeping up the children's strength during a siege of whooping cough."

Vinol is a wonderful combination of two world-famed tonics—the medicinal body building elements of cod liver oil and iron for the blood, therefore it is a perfectly safe medicine for children, because it is not a patent medicine, everything in it is printed on every package, so mothers may know what they are giving their little ones.

Therefore we ask every mother of a weak, sickly or ailing child in this vicinity to try Vinol on our guarantee. People's Drug Store, Gettysburg, Pa.

P. S. Our Saxo Salve is truly wonderful for Eczema. We guarantee it.
